

- Professor and head of Chair of Software Engineering at ETH Zurich
- Company founder of Eiffel Software
- Recognitions
 - Recipient of ERC Advanced Investigator Grant (2.5 M Euro) for “Concurrency Made Easy” project.
 - Doctorate Honoris Causa, University of York, UK. (Same year: IFIP Silver Core award.)
 - Harlan Mills prize of the IEEE (“For practical & fundamental contributions to object-oriented software engineering”). A top award for software engineering.
- Publications
 - 11 books, one with coauthor, others as single author, including best-seller (Object-Oriented Software Construction, about 300,000 copies sold, translated into 15 languages).
 - Citations (Google Scholar, 4/2015): H- Index 45, G-Index 181. Three highest-cited publications (“Einstein index”): respectively 8953, 2272 and 2163 citations.